DOCUMENTARY PROGRAM ON HIGHER EDUCATION
TO BE PRESENTED SATURDAY ON KGVO-TV

MISSOULA--

A special 30-minute documentary program entitled "Higher Education and Constitutional Power in Montana" will be presented on KGVO-TV in Missoula at noon Saturday, Nov. 22.

The program will offer an explanation of changes in the state's higher education structure by the 1972 Constitutional Convention and discussions regarding the lines of authority between the Board of Regents and the Montana Legislature.

The discussion presented during Saturday's program will include remarks on funding of the University of Montana in Missoula and other units of the Montana University System.

Featured in the discussion will be Dr. Lawrence K. Pettit, commissioner of higher education; Ted James, president of the Board of Regents; John Toole, who served as vice president of the Constitutional Convention; Missoula attorney J. C. Garlington, and State Sen. Daphne Bugbee, D-Missoula, who was a delegate to the Constitutional Convention.

The program also will be aired a second time at a future date.
